Bookseries tells popular Bible stories through fun-to-read rhymes and bright illustrations. This well-loved series captures the attention of children, telling scripturally sound stories that are enjoyable and easy to remember. One day in the life of Christ. Call it a tapestry of turmoil: A noisy pictorial in which the golden threads of triumph knot against the black, frazzled strings of tragedy. Call it a symphony of emotions: A sunrise-to-sunset orchestration of extremes. One score is brassy with exuberance -- the next moans with sorrow. Whatever you call it -- call it real. Author Max Lucado calls it "the second most stressful day in the life of our Savior." Before the morning becomes evening Jesus has reason to weep, then run, then shout, the curse, then praise, then doubt. Within a matter of moments his world is turned upside down. Sound familiar? The pink slip comes. The doctor calls. The divorce papers arrive. The check bounces. The life that had been calm is now chaotic. The world that had been serene is now stormy. Assailed by doubts. Pummeled by demands. If you've ever wondered if God in heaven can relate to you on earth, then read and re-read this pressure-packed day in the life of Christ. It is the only day, aside from the crucifixion, that all four gospels recorded. Lucado has interwoven their accounts in such a way that you will be assured that God knows how you feel. And you will be assured that within every torrent there is a calm center -- a place you can stand when your world gets windy. The Eye of the Storm. Suddenly, a furious storm came up on the lake, so that the waves swept over the boat. But Jesus was sleeping. The disciples went and woke Him, saying, "Lord, save us! We're going to drown!" He replied, "You of little faith why are you so afraid?" Then He got up and rebuked the winds and waves, and it was completely calm. The men were amazed and asked "What kind of man is this? Even the winds and waves obey Him!" Matthew 8:24-27 (NIV) Often, we can find ourselves lost in the wonder of what God is capable of. But, we can also at times lose track of what it means to be children of God. Many believe that if you walk with the Lord that you should not face trials, but this is not true; rather, you walk with the Lord through the trials. He can calm the raging storm in an instant, but sometimes we must face it with Him. In her book, What Kind of Man Is This?, author Nkechi Chinedum Uwaga shares a glimpse into her loving relationship with her Savior Jesus Christ. Her personal testimonies provide a thoughtful and insightful look into the glory that the Lord is capable of and what life can look like if you are close to the Lord. This journey of love, faith, God's faithfulness, and answered prayers invites others to embrace the Savior in their lives. The path that God led Nkechi and her family down is now the bedrock of her faith. She is sharing her story here in hopes that you may find similarities with your own experiences and see how the Lord may work in your life. Discover how the Lord will help provide for you, will answer prayers, and can bless your life. If you are in the eye of a storm, cling to the Lord. We will be tested, and we will face hard times--but Jesus can help you through the storm and calm the seas you are traveling in your Christian journey. ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Nkechi Chinedum Uwaga is a minister of the gospel, a missionary and an international conference speaker. She is the vice president of 'We Impact Africa' and pastors alongside her husband of God's Favorite house Church Aba Nigeria. She is the author of the book 'Ask and it will be given to you.' A registered nurse by profession and married with three Children. Sturdy board book for ages 3-6 presents the story of Jesus calming the storm with delightful illustrations that is fun to read or sing! Winner of a third-place award in Pope Francis books from the Catholic Media Association. "Why are you afraid? Have you no faith?"—Mark 4:40 As he calmed the storm at sea, Jesus reproached the apostles for their lack of faith. On March 27, 2020, Pope Francis used the Gospel passage as a sign of God's forgiveness and healing during the Extraordinary Urbi et Orbi Blessing from an empty St. Peter's Square. Even more than a year later, the Holy Father's words offer hope to a world that continues to fight its way back from the COVID-19 darkness. Christ in the Storm is the first book on the Pope's powerful and hopeful message during what we now know was just the beginning of the worldwide pandemic. This beautifully designed hardcover book gathers color photos, readings, the pope's homily and blessing, and also provides explanation of the symbolism and history throughout the event to create a powerful reminder that Jesus is always with us and that God's love never fails. It is not only a stunning keepsake of the Holy Father's important blessing, but more importantly a prayer resource you will return to again and again. An Urbi et Orbi Blessing (Urbi et Orbi means "to the city and to the world") is usually reserved for Christmas and Easter, but Pope Francis used his powerful and moving message to unite the world in prayer in the wake of the coronavirus. History will remember the dramatic images of the Holy Father walking alone in St. Peter's Square at twilight in the rain and his profound words of hope. The Pope said, "Faith begins when we realize we are in need of salvation. We are not self-sufficient; by ourselves we flounder: we need the Lord, like ancient navigators needed the stars. Let us invite Jesus into the boats of our lives. Let us hand over our fears to him so that he can conquer them. Like the disciples, we will experience that with him on board there will be no shipwreck. Because this is God's strength: turning to the good everything that happens to us, even the bad things. He brings serenity into our storms, because with God life never dies." In addition to reading about the historical background of the event, you also will learn the significance of elements of the unique and deeply moving service, including the icon of Mary, Health of the Roman People the Miraculous Crucifix plenary indulgence prayers such as the Litany of Supplication Eucharistic Adoration Chants such as the Tantum Ergo A beautiful set of bible stories retold and illustrated for children ages 3-6. Each Bible Story is told in clear and simple language with large print for easy reading. The series has twelve stories from the Old Testament and twelve stories from the New Testament and they are printed in a great portable size, easy to carry around or pop into a bag when travelling.
