Every Good Endeavour Dec 15 2019 In today's increasingly competitive and insecure economic environment, we often question the reason for work: why am I doing this? Why is it so hard? And what can I do about it? Work may seem just a means to an end: we do it to earn the money to enjoy life outside the workplace. Here, Timothy Keller argues that God's plan is radically more ambitious: he actually created us to work. We are to work together to make the world a better place, to help each other, and so to find purpose for our lives. Our faith should enhance our work, and our work should develop our faith. With deep insight, Timothy Keller draws on essential and relevant biblical wisdom to address our questions about work. There is grace available if we have taken the wrong attitude, idolising money and using our careers to glorify ourselves rather than God. Keller shows how through excellence, integrity, discipline, creativity and passion in the workplace we can impact society for good. Developing a better attitude to work releases us to serve others humbly, to worship God everyday, and leaves us deeply fulfilled. 2024 Planner Moving Mountains May 12 2022 Featuring monthly and weekly calendars, a year-at-a-glance section, pages for frequent contacts, and more, this planner offers an important reminder for your lovely heart: God's voice is calling you to place your faith in Him in every aspect of your life. . . every day of the year!

Callings for Life: God's Plan, Your Purpose Feb 21 2023 College students and recent graduates are often uncertain about the future, wondering if they chose the right path and will land a job. Adults in stable jobs and full-time parents often experience feelings of being stuck, frustrated, or unhappy; they think the grass is always greener on the other side of the fence. Those who have lost their jobs or are retired may wonder what the future hold and if they will be able to support themselves. In our quest to "have it all" in life, we might be overwhelmed or stressed, but God's Word speaks a better truth about how we're meant to live. Pastor Leininger gives readers five key themes to focus on with these struggles and uncertainties, providing reassurance and guidance while reminding us all that God does have a plan for our lives

What Is God Calling You to Do? Dec 19 2022 Welcome to the process of discernment. We assume that since you are reading this book, your congregation has decided to enter into the discernment process. When we speak of discernment we mean seeking the will of God in our own lives and in the lives of our congregations, and then setting goals for fulfilling that call to ministry. As you will see in the pages to follow, discernment is a process that takes planning on the part of some so that the larger group is free to experience the leading of the Holy Spirit. Although applicable to any church in the Reformed tradition, the discernment process outlined in this book has been developed to help congregations of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church listen to how God is answering the question "What is our call to ministry to be at this time in our church's life?" The goal of this book and its plan outline is to strengthen congregations. This strength will come through seeking the will of God and assisting and enabling members of congregations to work in partnership toward the goals they discover through this process.

BE POSITIVE Oct 25 2020 "Faith then means we assume the confidence of things being real while knowing they are real based upon the confidence that we have in God and His ability to stand behind the evidence of that reality." PJ EDMUND, Sr. in his well received book, Be Positive Keep A Word of Faith in Your Mouth, he teaches faith is the principle and foundation for all success. It is central to the survival of all of us that believe. In many ways the places of worship that are filled to capacity every weekend deliver instruction in the understanding, the articulation and the application of faith. PJ Edmund, Sr., calls these gatherings universities of faith because they inspire learning about the central theme of our existence and relationship with God. This is where we learn the elements, the rudiments and the establishment of faith! Be Positive: Keep A Word of Faith in Your Mouth speaks to this concept of the university of faith. It describes the many empowering experiences that we must complete to continue to build faith. The path of faith is not always a linear one. It is the culmination of many journeys, eventualities and commitments.

God, Revelation and Authority (Set of 6)

Oct 05 2021 A monumental six-volume set that presents an undeniable case for the revealed authority of God to a generation that has forgotten who he is and what he has done.

The Equipping Church Jan 16 2020 Picture your church as a place where the priesthood of believers finds its expression in creative and powerful ways. Picture leaders and staff equipping and unleashing people to minister in ways consistent with how God designed them. Think of the effectiveness, vitality, and contentment that come when the body of Christ nurtures itself through the healthy give-and-take of each member. In The Equipping Church, Sue Mallory describes the benefits, the structure, and the culture of an equipping church and shows how your congregation can become one. This book is about limitless possibilities. Think "vision." What might your church look like if its members became vital, fully empowered partners in ministry? How can you help them discover and release their full potential? How would their roles change--and yours? AN EQUIPPING CHURCH IS A CHURCH WHERE: * pastors and leaders enable church members to share in ministry * people's gifts, talents, and life callings are matched with areas of service * ministry opportunities are recognized and developed * the culture encourages the growth of a broad array of ministries * a well-designed system addresses needs of every kind, both individual and corporate * the pastor doesn't have to be all things to all people Unpacking insights and principles uncovered by Leadership Training Network over the last several years, Mallory helps you customize an equipping system and culture in your church. You'll proceed from preparation (what you need to know), to foundations (what you need to change), to construction (what you need to do). In the process, Mallory takes you inside the story of her own church, Brentwood Presbyterian, to observe the different stages of their trial-and-error journey and how it has transformed their approach to "doing church." See how they dealt with various concerns that arose along the way, and meet men and women whose lives have been changed because Brentwood took the ministry road less traveled. Each chapter includes a section of "Equipping Principles," questions for discussion and reflection, and a summary of different equipping churches from around the country. With the accompanying Equipping Church Guidebook, this book will be a mile marker in your church--and the gateway to a more effective and biblical approach to ministry.

How to do Mission Action Planning Sep 23 2020 How to Do Mission Action Planning (SPCK, 2009) was the first book to appear on the MAP process, at a time when it was beginning to have a significant impact. In this fully revised and expanded edition, the authors offer further critical evaluation and theological reflection, by drawing on the experiences of people who have been using the MAP process in different contexts from their own: Fr Damian Feeney, parish priest and Catholic Missioner of Lichfield diocese Canon David Banbury, leader of Parish Mission Support, Blackburn diocese The Rt Revd Dr Alan Smith, Bishop of St Albans Dr Stephen Hance, Canon Missioner of Southwark diocese Linda Rayner, the United Reformed Church co-ordinator for Fresh Expressions 'This is a rare book - a refreshing meditation on planning for mission - and one that is rooted in spirituality. As the authors show, the church and its mission arise from our vision of God. And once that vision has been realised, churches are able to become more intentional about their mission. Our vocation to share God's love is not an option or an afterthought. It is the heart and soul of our faith. Mission - and our planning of it - should not fill us with fear or foreboding. Rather, as the authors argue, the call to share God's love can be evermore meaningful, even as mission becomes more methodical.' The Very Revd Prof. Martyn Percy, Dean of Christ Church, Oxford 'This is a must-read for anyone using MAP. The rich theological reflection, the detailed unpacking of the 4 MAP phases and the learning offered by the 5 guest practitioners add up to an impressive offering. This book enables good questions to be asked, overflows with wise reflection and contains oodles of practical examples, ideas and resources. I commend it to all local church leaders who are seeking to discern how best to translate the prayer 'your kingdom come' into appropriate church and congregational action.' John Dunnett, General Director, CPAS 'This timely revision is honest, well researched and carefully put together - an important contribution to the necessary change of culture required in today's Church.' Julian Henderson, Bishop of Blackburn

The Riches of God's Calling in Christ Aug 03 2021 The God of the Bible has a creative voice that he has used to create everything that exists in the universe, both visible and invisible. This all powerful God has used the same voice to call people to come to himself in his Son Jesus Christ. The Riches of God's Calling in Christ offers a comprehensive analysis of the subject of God's voice and his calling as revealed in the Scriptures. It starts with the reality of God's voice, and the reasons and methods God has used historically to call people to himself and to his service. Then the book dwells of the core aspects of God's calling in Christ as related to the Church. The English word Church comes from the Greek word Ekklesia which means a group of called out or an assembly of people called for a specific purpose. The Church is then by definition made of people who have been called by God to meet him in Jesus Christ. The author hopes this book will help to clarify some fundamental teachings of the gospel and in the process encourage people to respond positively to the calling of God made in Christ Jesus.

God'S Calling for an Investment Dec 27 2020 God is Calling for an Investment, He has made an Investment in You. Know ye that the Lord He is God: it is He that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are His people, and the sheep of His pasture, (Psalm 100:3). He is the only one who knows the secret plan for His investment. Without God, there is no future investment, (Jeremiah 29:11). Even the Gospel is an investment. It provides us with restoration and is preparing men and women of God to walk in ministry. The Gospel is also known as the Good News that brings hope and provides healing for the soul. Remember, the investor is God, and we are His investment. Gods investment of the Gospel authenticates His power over the earth and mankind. Each investment God gives unto us is filled with miracles that demonstrate a heavenly illustration with an earthly manifestation. Gods investment here confirms His great power over the earth and mankind.
